Joy's Online Library

Description:

Welcome to Joy's Online Library! Here you can view and borrow a variety of books. Genres range from mystery and horror to fantasy and dystopian. You will be able to search for the book you want and if it is available, you can borrow it. If it is not available, you can put yourself on the waitlist and then will be notified when it is back. If you are unsure of the book you want to read, you can browse and by clicking on the book title you will be able to view a short summary of the book.

Page names:

- Main Book Browsing Page
- Book Summary
- Search Result
- User Profile
- User's Borrowed Books

Data Description:

I will be storing a list of books with the book name, description, author, and availability. Each user will have their own unique login so I will need user accounts with login security. The user will also have a list of books that they have borrowed and how long they have until they must return it.